Subject: this week

Believe it or not it is greenery time! If you sold greenery plan on picking it up at the YMCA tomorrow (Tuesday) around 5 if it delivered on time. Call Kathy Richmond if you have questions.

Our second away meet was last weekend. I didn't get to go but I hear from my swimmers and other spectators that it went well. That means our next meet is at home. It takes an army to put on a great meet! We have posted both the sign up sheet for helping at the meet and for concession stand donations. Please, help the team by signing up. Check out the bulletin board for more information.

All the female team suits are here and only a few still need delivered. We are still looking for the few male suits to arrive next week. (Cross your fingers and your toes). I will let you know as soon as they get here! If you or someone you know still wants to get a team suit, I do have a few available in some sizes for purchase. Don't ask, this has been a challenging process. But certainly do let me know if you are interested.

We are having practice on Wednesday for those eating turkey close to home. Otherwise have a safe and wonderful holiday with your family and friends!! Deb
